Kary to speak at graduation

HHS librarian Rachel Kary takes notes in preparation for the Class of 2022 commencement address. This is Kary's second time being selected as the graduation speaker.

The Huron High School Class of 2022 has chosen librarian Rachel Kary as the commencement speaker for the graduation ceremony at HHS on May 22.

Kary says she was shocked at first when she received the news that she was selected to speak at graduation but is honored and excited about the opportunity to speak at her alma mater again.

Kary was the HHS commencement speaker for the Class of 2020 as well, which has prepared her for this year's address. As the speaker for the class of 2020, Kary gave her speech twice, once over video, and once at the ceremony at Tiger Stadium.

To prepare for her speech, Kary keeps notes on her phone and carries a personal notepad with her wherever she goes; she adds to it whenever a new idea pops up, even in the middle of the night.

When Kary was a senior in high school, her commencement speaker was Steve Peters, who was a long-time psychology teacher at HHS. Peters was Kary's homeroom teacher and one of her favorite teachers at HHS. Peters left a lasting impact on her, with Kary says that he was one of the main reasons she decided to be a teacher.

For her speech, Kary wants to leave a positive influence on the Class of 2022. Throughout her career as a librarian at HHS, Kary has always approached situations with a charismatic, upbeat outlook. She hopes her attitude towards the seniors throughout the past four years has inspired the Class of 2022 to venture out into the adult world and to do great things.

Goodbye and good luck

Staff moving on from HHS

BY CAMERAN RATHJEN

As the school year winds down, the goodbyes begin -- goodbye to school friends and seniors, goodbye to homework and teachers. This year, Huron High School is also saying goodbye to five staff members: Courtney Baszler, Tyler Spanton, Amanda Ladwig, Tarryn Tomczak, and Laiken Vetter.

Baszler has been at HHS for two years teaching social studies. "I've lived and worked in Huron for nearly my entire life, so I decided it's time to move away and get a fresh start somewhere new," says Baszler. She plans to continue her teaching career while also taking classes to earn a master's degree.

Spanton has taught physical education for the last three years. He is moving to Jamestown, ND, to be closer to family and take a job opportunity working for a locally owned construction company, coaching football in the fall. He is sad to leave Huron but is excited for what the future holds.

Ladwig has been a special education teacher for the last two years. She is leaving Huron to be closer to family. She plans to continue her teaching career. "I feel a little nervous about my upcoming plans as there's a lot of new changes happening," explains Ladwig.

Tomczak has been a special education paraprofessional for the last two years. She is leaving her position to take over as the administrative assistant in the activities office, located in the Huron Arena. "I will be working with the activities director and helping to oversee operations of the school's activities," states Tomczak. She is looking forward to be a part of the many activities and events in the district.

Vetter worked at HHS as the secretary in the counselors' office this past year. She plans to move to Jamestown, ND, to be closer to family and to pursue a career in photography while working part-time as an administrative assistant at Quality Title, Inc.

The students, staff, and community of Huron thank these staff members for being a vital part of the Huron School District and wish them all the best in their future endeavors.

Newspaper staff as songs

"Hello" - Adele

"There's such a difference between us and a million miles. 'Hello' from the other side."

Darlene, Kenzie, and Josalyn are perfectly described by this song because of their introverted personalities. They may be quiet, but they definitely find a way to get their assignments done. With each of them having very different personalities, they know how to work cooperatively with others. It must come from their "other side".

"Celebration" - Kool & The Gang

"Yahoo! It's a celebration. Yahoo! Celebrate good times. Come on!"

Eh Hser, Emily, Claire, Bryn, and Jake, the editors, are perfectly described by this song because they have a celebration when their pages are completed. What a feeling it is when the pages are all done and the paper is finished. You could say that they have a good time.

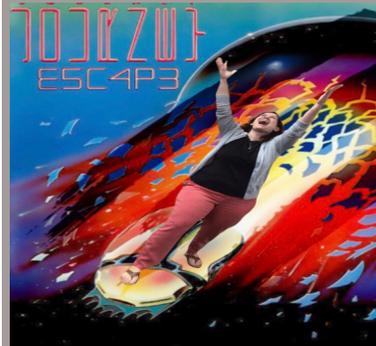

"Meant to Be" - Florida Goergia Line

"As long as you're right here next to me, everything's gonna be alright. If it's meant to be, it'll be, it'll be."

Noah, Sike, and Cami are perfectly described by this song because they always seem to be attached at the hip. When it comes to writing articles for the newspaper, it is very likely that these three want to work together on their assigned project for the month.

"Don't Stop Believin'" - Journey

"Don't stop believin'. Hold on to the feelin'."

Mrs. Rubish is perfectly described by this song because, with her constant kind and positive words, she never gives up on us. Mrs. Rubish knows how to keep everyone working, and she makes sure the pages are ready to go.

"Work Hard, Play Hard" - Wiz Khalifa

"Work hard, play hard, work hard, play hard."

Roger, Dylan, and Ethan are perfectly described by this song because they are three athletes who are hard workers; no song could describe them better. They work hard on their newspaper assignments, which helps them to play hard on the field.

"You've Got a Friend in Me" - Randy Newman

"You've got a friend in me."

Blake, Kylie, and Brailey are perfectly described by this song because they work very well together, and they are the best of friends. They have one another's backs, and they make the best team to get the job done.

"The Lazy Song" - Bruno Mars

"Today, I don't feel like doing anything. I just wanna lay in my bed."

Colt, Jack, and Titus are perfectly described by this song. Every day, when they show up to class, if they even do, it's a guessing game as to what their mood will be. More than likely, they will be in a "don't feel like doing anything, nothing at all" mood. When they want to be lazy, they will be lazy. Sometimes, they just need a little extra motivation to get their tasks done.

"Girls Just Want to Have Fun" - Cyndi Lauper

"When the workin' day is done, oh, girls, they wanna have fun. Oh, girls just wanna have fun."

Sydney, Gwyn, and Madison are perfectly described by this song because they all get their work done, and they know how to make newspaper a good time. They don't always get assigned the fun articles, but they make the most of what they have.
