Dear Board of Education,

Please accept my resignation from my position as the Family and Consumer Sciences teacher at Huron Middle School. I will complete the remainder of my contract for the 2021-2022 school year.

I am so grateful for the opportunity to have taught at Huron Middle School this year. I know that I have grown so much as an educator, and I will miss my amazing coworkers and students. I have accepted a position in a district that is closer to my family, and I am excited to continue my journey as a FACS educator.

I wish the best for the district in your search to fill this position. If I can be of any assistance in this transition, please let me know.

Sincerely,

Dear Mrs. Hinker,

The purpose of this letter is to inform you of my resignation as 5th grade teacher at Washington 4-5 Center. I have enjoyed working for the Huron School District for the past 17 years. I wish to thank Mrs. Hinker, Mrs. Willemssen, and former middle school principal, Mike Taplett, for the opportunities that all of you provided me as a teacher. I will miss the students, staff, and my co-workers of the Huron School District.

While I have truly enjoyed my teaching career, I am interested in utilizing my education and experience in a different capacity. I have accepted another position that will hopefully allow me to continue to grow professionally. I will remain in the Huron community, but look forward to this new path.
