Iverson to speak at graduation

HHS Language Arts teacher Laura Iverson grins as she jots down ideas for her commencement address for the Class of 2023. The senior class chose Iverson as the speaker by a popular vote.

Each year, the graduating class selects an HHS teacher to address the graduating class at the commencement ceremony, and the HHS Class of 2023 has chosen Mrs. Laura Iverson to give the address this year.

Iverson, who has never given the HHS commencement address before, says she was very excited to be informed that she was selected. She does have a plethora of experience in public speaking, though, as she has been the chosen speaker for the HHS Veterans Day program, and she is also a coach for the speech and debate teams at HHS.

When asked about her own graduation experience, Iverson said that her experience was a blur. "I remember where I was at, and I remember afterwards, I think I was too nervous in between," she responded with a chuckle.

Iverson says she thinks a commencement speaker should give students "an opportunity to hear something motivational one last time from a teacher." She believes the speech should be short and sweet, allowing seniors to focus on the fun the future will bring.

Iverson says having a senior SRB group makes giving this speech extra special. The speech, she says is a great way to connect one last time with the Class of 2023 after spending four years with her SRB and having many students in class for eleventh grade language arts class. Iverson will give her commencement address at the ceremony on May 21 at 2:00 p.m.

To the class of 2023...

- "Good luck to the senior class. I'm excited to see what the future holds for all of us!" - Madyson Schroder, Class President
- "Congratulations to the senior class on all of your achievements! You guys have worked hard and you deserve all the success that comes your way." - Elizabeth Estrada, Class Vice President
- "Wishing you all the best as we begin this new chapter of our lives." - Zoe Martin, Class Secretary
- "You all have accomplished so much already, and I know you will continue to do amazing things in the future." - Madison Perry, Class Treasurer

Goodbye and good luck Staff moving on from HHS

BY NOAH BECK

With the end of each school year comes a long list of goodbyes: goodbye to friends, classmates, and teachers. As the class of 2023 hits the road, so do some members of the current HHS staff.

Choir director Ian Krekelberg will take over the choir program at Huron Middle School following the retirement of longtime director Teresa Smith.

Para-Educator Toni Harp will leave the district as she moves with her family to North Dakota.

The food service staff at the high school will lose three team members in Mark Owens, Donna Weber, and Kathy Kempf. Kempf is retiring after a twenty-five year career with the Huron School District.

The Tiger Stripes staff and the student body wish them all the best.
