Mr. Busch to send off the Class of 2021

BY AUDREY RUBISH

Matthew Busch, a teacher at Huron High School for 21 years, said he is, "...a little nervous, but definitely honored" to be chosen as this year's graduation speaker.

While not many students have gotten the chance to have Mr. Busch as a teacher, those who have had the pleasure of learning from him have loved it.

When asked about this year's senior class, he said, "In my classes - rowdy. Rowdy and loud." But in terms of the class as a whole, he thinks that, "It is a compliment to the class that we've made it all year."

Born and raised in Huron, Mr. Busch only lived elsewhere for a few years when he attended North Dakota State College of Science. He is married to Debbie Busch and together they have three kids and three grandkids.

Mr. Busch is a teacher at the Vocational Building where he teaches building trades, but he originally went to school for architectural drafting and estimating. When he realized he didn't want to sit in front of a computer every day, he continued his job with Williams Construction. When the building trades position opened up, Busch applied for the job and, "The rest is history!"

Busch loves working with his students and loves getting to teach them the skills needed to build a house. The most important things he instills in them are life skills such as time management, a good work ethic, and taking pride in the work they complete.

Busch's commencement speech is sure to be full of great advice and funny stories about the class of 2021.

Saying goodbye to Engst Putting down the spatula after 28 years

BY JAMEE KATTNER

Mrs. Engst puts away her cooking utensils for the last time. She enjoyed teaching kids to cook among many other life skills.

Kathy Engst is retiring after 28 years of teaching. She has been an essential part of the Huron High School community, doing much more than just teaching.

Many students at HHS don't realize how much Engst does behind the scenes. She has been in charge of the prom committee for 24 years and has made sure that prom is special each and every one of those years.

Engst grew up in the Twin Cities. She then got her Bachelors of Science degree at the University of Wisconsin, Stout, and her masters degree in Madison.

When asked what her favorite part of being a teacher has been she said, "All the experiences with the kids, especially when going to competitions for culinary arts and cake decorating."

Engst has had the opportunity to reach many kids throughout HHS by teaching at least eight home-economics classes throughout her years. These classes include: Human Development 1 & 2, Fashion & Sewing, Interior Design, Food & Nutrition, Fundamental Foods, and Culinary Arts 1 & 2. Engst loves to teach all of these classes because it offers a variety throughout her days.

After retirement, Engst has many fun plans she is looking forward to. These plans include seeing family, spending time with her grandkids, coming back and subbing, and taking trips to Arizona, Minnesota, and Napa Valley.

When reminiscing about her time here, Engst says she'll miss the people the most. Leaving a little bit of advice, Engst says, "Don't procrastinate and live in the moment. Make lots of memories, be kind, and enjoy your time at Huron High School because time goes way too fast."

Goodbye and good luck Staff moving from HHS

BY JAMEE KATTNER

Imagine waking up at 4:30am every day, driving an hour to work, and still showing up to your job with a smile on your face, and a positive and caring radiance surrounding you. Kari Eulberg doesn't have to imagine because this is a typical morning for her.

Mrs. Eulberg has been a part of the Huron High School staff for eight years, but she is transferring to McCook Central to be closer to her husband and teenage daughter. Originally, Eulberg went to Dakota State University and earned a degree in business. Then while working in Howard as a para-educator, she got a degree in special education through Black Hills State University. To round it out, Eulberg got her masters through Northern State University.

When Eulberg joined the HHS faculty, she taught resource classes and helped many students with their IEP's. Eulberg has an amazing capacity for understanding, especially when it comes to the students of HHS. When asked what she would miss the most, Eulberg simply said, "The kids." Although teachers don't always need personal connections to be successful with their students, for Eulberg, it was all about making an impact that could last for a lifetime. The passion for her students is shown best here: "Working with kids who didn't have much confidence in themselves and can now confidently accomplish their goals, is the best feeling in the world."

~Leah Hofer is leaving HHS to teach high school CTE at Wolsey-Wessington. It is the shortest commute for her, she'll be able to be in the same school as her kids, and she'll get to teach the classes she's always wanted to teach.

~Troy Brock, is moving with his family to Iowa.

~Mary Foster, a long-time para-educator, is retiring.

~Mia Kruse and Kris LaVallee are transferring to Huron Middle School.

Which senior do you look up to...

The senior I look up to most is my sister Jasmine Feild. I look up to her because she's very strong and caring. She has taught me mostly everything I know, and I can always talk to her. She has the best personality and I love hanging out with her. We're kinda' the best duo.

~Kiara Feild

I look up to Anna Kruse. Anna is so amazing and talented. She is always lighting up the room. She is a very talented musician that I look up to. She is very confident and outgoing which I admire a lot. She is just an awesome person to be around. Love you Anna!

~ Maggie Knippling

I look up to Rei Hoops because he works very hard in school and also is very good at hockey. He is a huge inspiration and was a very important leader on the hockey team.

~ Grady Bott

The senior I most look up to is my sister Regan Hamilton. I look up to Regan not just because she's my sister, but because she pushes herself to be the best she can be and always puts her best effort forward.

~ Brylee Hamilton

I look up to Brooklyn Boetel because she always has a positive attitude that makes her enjoyable to be around.

~ Gracie Culver

The senior I look up to most is Mu Mu Soe. I look up to Mu Mu because she is a good actress and a nice person. She helped me with a lot of things in the spring play.

~Tessa Gogolin

Tyson Lien always has a smile on his face and he wants to be the best version of himself and it doesn't matter if people see how hard he works or not, and if he has a goal, nothing is going to stop him from reaching it.

~ Will Radke

I look up to Hei Say the most because she is the most selfless person I know. Always feeding me and giving me rides.

~ Htoo Ray

Herberth Rameriez because he makes rad jokes!

~ Jenna Zieres

Audrey Rubish finds a way, even with a busy schedule to stop and talk to people, be friendly, and to help people.

~ Brailey Walls

I most look up to Fatima Reyes. I look up to her because she's dedicated, hard-working, and kind. She's also going into the marines which I find to be really admirable.

~ Jolie Carrillo

The senior I look up to is Tanner Marone because he is outgoing and funny. He doesn't give two craps about much. So I guess I wish I had as much fun as he does.

~ Hannah Leiferman

In ten years, I will be. . .

Kaiser Ruth-Styer: I will be filthy rich and building houses in the Florida Keys.

Cailey Coss: Living with my husband and first kid and I'd have my masters in whatever field I decided to study.

Aubrey Rutledge: I will be famous for something but I don't know what yet. I'll be the mother of 5 billion cats.

Mariah Miller: I hope to be graduated from medical school and starting my Ob/Gyn career.

Haylee Peterson: I will be living with my husband and hella animals ;)

Franches Rey: In 10 years I will be working and traveling around the world.

Jade Kerlin: Hopefully a hermit in the mountains somewhere away from everyone with all my pets.

Hei Say: I will be grading my 4th graders' homework with my husband in Wisconsin by the fireplace.

Shee Nay Wah: See myself having 10 children. One for each year.

Rian Kruger: Hopefully I'm not poor and I live in a big city.

Lexy Gilbert: I will be opening my occupational therapy clinic and be married with a rich man who will pay for all of it

Juan Urena: Wearing a wife beater and wishing I was still in high school with Mrs. Rubish.

Would you rather...

Crushin' on a senior

Sike Ma Noke has a crush on seniors Braden Demarce and Le Yang.

Saybi McDermid has a crush on senior Tanner Marone. Mr. Hennrich is in disbelief.

Madison Perry has a crush on senior Herberth Ramirez.

Peyton Bischoff has a crush on senior Bessie Willemssen.

Jackson Reno has a crush on senior Tristan Cardona because of how hard he hit him during football.

Favorite Memory

Kiara Feilds - "Favorite memory was when Bessie and I got to be partners for a part in their dance and Bessie would always make me laugh."

Kaiden Caudell - "All the performances for We Found Sound with the seniors."

Tessa Gogolin - "I have lots of good memories with many seniors in the spring play: Mu Mu Soe, Nate Lyon, Plar Plo Clay, Anna Kruse, Herberth Ramirez, and Malachi Mann."

Paycee Head - "Cheer and Dance season with Cailey Coss."

Will Radke - "When Tyson Lien was forced to leave the building after winning his second state title."

Brailey Walls - "Delivering meals on wheels with senior Bella Hernandez."

Last Will and Testament

I, Jayda Hennrich, leave my magical rosin to Sawyer Hennrich, because she's a viola and she needs it.

I, Cassie Valer, leave my studio/booth key and burning glove to Jake Holforty

I, Sebastian Cardona, leave a pass to all underclassman for free hugs from me!

I, Tristan Cardona, leave my leadership role on the football team to Ethan Remington because he is a strong leader and the team needs him.

I, Leah Pyle, leave my awful case of senioritis to Brylee Hamilton because I know it's already started for her.

I, Aiden Dejean, leave my black dodge pickup to Hayden Kane, because I know he has really been wanting one.

I, Gabriel Tepexpa, leave the two little Christmas decorations on my home room door to Mrs. Rubish. She's the only one who won't take them off.

I, Jaren Schley, leave my good looks to Jase Schley.

I, Isabella Hernandez, leave my will to live to James Tharp, hopefully you'll use it more than I have.

I, Tyson Lien, leave my weight room knowledge to Holden Hegg, because I know he will be in there a lot.

I, Carter Hott, leave my drip to Jayden Beck, because he needs it.

I, Brooklyn Boetel, leave my amazing running skills to Tori Buffington.

I, Kaiser Ruth-Styer, leave my favorite urinal to Tyson Ruth.

I, Brooke Schiltz, leave my dark humor to Roger Puterbaugh because he gets it.

I, Carter Hansen, will my last four brain cells to Kelby Dickson, one for each year he'll still be in high school

I, Tanner Marone, leave my brass shot put to Bryan "Chumlee" Ramirez, because he's in love with my shot put.

I, Hannah Moeding, leave my very shiny silver trumpet to Aiden Zavesky, because he's the only one in jazz band with a gold trumpet.

I, Nate Lyon, leave my ability to destroy my opponents with facts and logic to Angel Olivio.

I, Mikena Moore, leave Emily Dale my out of system ability not because she needs it but because I was good

I, Karlie Bigelow, am leaving my monster golf swing to Bryn Huber so she can win state.

I, Shee Nay Wah, leave my personality to my sister, Htoo Ray. She's already a Walmart version of me so I might as well give her the rest of the bundle.

I, Shelbey Hershman, leave my amazing humor to Camy Anderson, use it well kid.

I, Lexy Gilbert, leave my track baton to Heaven Gainey so she can start next year's relays.

I, Eh Dah leave my locker to anyone who keeps it because it's optional.

I, Ryan Janes, leave my bench riding skills to Kristen Janes, because she is really good at sitting down.

I, Aubrey Rutledge, leave the messy, dirty flag silks to Kylie Hanebuth and Abbey Mann. It's their turn to create something beautiful for the marching band.

We were always beautiful, but now we're beautiful-er

LEMONADE MOUTH

Hei Say and Nate — Lemonade Mouth is a movie about being yourself and rejecting corrupt authority. Both Hei Say and Nate live this mantra to its fullest in their lives.

Hei Say is relentlessly kind, no matter the situation, and Nate boasts his semi-permanent spot on the opinion page, talking about whatever politics he can. They both love to hum along to whatever song is in their heads, whether it be their own creations or some song no one else has heard.

Let's raise our lemonade, Sprite, and mushy, rotting bananas that we pulled from the bottom of our backpacks and toast to these lovely people who take the message of Lemonade Mouth to heart.

PRINCESS PROTECTION PROGRAM

Colby, Nightin, and Kenzie — Princess Protection Program is a movie about a princess who goes into hiding to escape from an evil government. It explores the themes of true friendship that can withstand all obstacles.

Kenzie, Nightin and Colby may as well have gone into hiding as far as our class is concerned, considering how many class periods they have missed. We plan to work around Colby and Kenzie's absences, and Nightin wasn't even on our staff during first semester!

However, despite these not-so-suspicious disappearances from class, Kenzie, Nightin, and Colby are highly valuable members of this class, just like Princess Rosalinda is to Carter Mason.

16 WISHES

Reilly and Carter — 16 Wishes is about a girl who gains the ability to grant wishes on her sixteenth birthday. If this happened to Carter and Reilly, their first wish would be to leave Newspaper class and never come back.

Reilly's chronic senioritis and Carter's hunger for, well, food leads the staff on a daily manhunt to find them. Yet, somehow they always manage to get their pages done and looking great (mostly) on time.

Even if their dreams came true, we would still wish they would stay in our class forever. Their perspectives are ones the newspaper definitely needed--when they aren't too distracted to share them.

CHEETAH GIRLS

Haylee, Torrey, and Lexy — Did someone say girl power? Haylee, Torrey, and Lexy are absolutely the Cheetah Girls (if there were only three Cheetah Girls and the movies were all about finishing a quality Newspaper page on time). They are fierce, fashionable, and hard-working.

Their positive energy and time-management skills make us want to burst into a perfectly choreographed song and dance sequence. But, they still bring the sass that keeps things interesting.

We know we can count on them to keep things running smoothly. Without them, our class (and paper) would be a mess. These ladies really are a group of cool cats.

RADIO REBEL

Mikena and Emily — Radio Rebel is a movie about a girl who finds her voice through an anonymous radio show listened to by basically everyone in the movie. Mikena and Emily have found their voices, ironically, as the creators of our photo spreads.

Their enthusiasm always lands them on the fun pages, much to the dismay of everyone else looking to avoid writing. They know what they want and aren't afraid to fight for it. They went from two of the quieter members of our class to two of the loudest and most sarcastic.

They always make sure that we have a great time, even if we're close to a deadline. What would we do without them? (Probably not photo spreads.)

CAMP ROCK

Eduardo, Le, and Eh Hser — Camp Rock is a movie about a pop star trying to find out the identity of a mystery girl with an amazing voice. Eduardo, Eh Hser, and Le are definitely that mystery girl-- er, guy.

Eduardo is the voice we hear inside our heads... and yelling from the couch... and yelling across the room... and yelling pretty much anywhere. However, we know we can count on him to make his page the best it can be, just like Le and Eh Hser.

They are our secret weapon. Hardly anyone else in our class knows what is happening in the sports world, nor is so willing to write about it. We are so thankful they joined the paper this year.

ANOTHER CINDERELLA STORY

Aubrey, Emma, Jamee, and Audrey — Another Cinderella Story is a Cinderella retelling about an over-worked girl who dreams of being a dancer and a pop star boy looking for his mystery girl.

Audrey and Jamee are obviously the power couple, Mary Santiago and Joey Parker, because of their absolute inability to stay away from each other. Emma and Aubrey are more like the evil sisters, Britt and Bree, because they're constantly trying to keep everyone from having fun and focus on the actual class.

Another Cinderella Story and the editors have one last thing in common: their all the best of their kind.

GIRL VS. MONSTER

Mrs. Rubish — Girl vs. Monster is about a girl who discovers she is a monster hunter. She must then defeat the monsters before they can defeat her. What movie to better describe Mrs. Rubish's relationship with our class than this one?

She puts up with a lot from us, whether it be hogging the couch, snarfing down second lunches in the back of class, refusing to work without candy, or trying to convince her to put not-so-school-friendly ideas in the paper (cough, cough, justice for "What over-the-counter drug are you?")

Yet, we know she does everything because she loves us, and we love her too. Can we do another trivia card now?
